

ORDINANCE NO. 132

AN ORDINANCE for the purpose of protecting the water furnished to the inhabitants of the city of Wallowa, Oregon, and for the preservation and protection of the purity of the water supply of the city of Wallowa, Oregon, and declaring an emergency.

THE CITY OF WALLOWA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to establish, construct or maintain any slaughter pen, stock feeding yards, hog pens, stables or other offensive yard or out house along Bear Creek or any stream of water used by the inhabitants of the city of Wallowa, or from which any water is used by the inhabitants of the city of Wallowa for culinary or domestic purposes, within 200 feet of the bank of such stream, any where within ten miles above the point where said stream is taken by said city of Wallowa, where the waste or drainage therefrom will naturally find its way into said stream of water; or to deposit, pile, unload or leave any manure, or other offensive rubbish, or the carcass of any dead animal along Bear Creek or any stream of water used, in whole or in part, by the inhabitants of said city, any where within 200 feet of the bank of said stream, any where within ten miles above the point where said stream is taken by said city, where the waste or drainage therefrom will naturally find its way into said stream of water; or to permit any cattle, horses, sheep, goats or hogs to remain in or near, or to pollute said Bear Creek or any stream of water used by the inhabitants of said city within ten miles above the point where said water is first taken by the said city for culinary and domestic purposes, whether said stream is used for such purpose, in whole or in part; or for any person or persons, to put in said Bear Creek or such stream, any sewage, drainage, refuse or polluting matters, or any dead animal carcasses, or part thereof, or putrid, decaying or offensive substance, which either by itself or in connection with other matter will corrupt or impair the quality of the water of any stream used by the inhabitants of the city of Wallowa, and particularly of said Bear Creek in Wallowa County, Oregon, any where within ten miles above the point where said stream or said Bear Creek is first taken by said city of Wallowa, Oregon.

Section 2. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance upon conviction thereof in the Recorder's Court of the city of Wallowa, Oregon, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $25.00, nor any more than $300.00, or by confinement in the city jail not to exceed 150 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 3. It is hereby declared that existing conditions are such that it is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public, peace, health, welfare and safety, that this ordinance shall go into immediate force and effect on the 22nd day of June, A.D., 1928, after its approval by the Mayor, after its approval by the State Health Officer of the State of Oregon, and it has theretofore been published by printing in the Wallowa Sun, a newspaper published weekly in the city of Wallowa, Oregon, for one issue of said paper.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Wallowa this 5th day of June, A.D., 1928, by the following Councilmen voting therefor:

- J.W. Evans Aye
